F. LEYPOLDT, EDITOR AND PUBLISHER, 37 PARK ROW, NEW-YORK.

VOL. VI. No. 15. NEW-YORK, Saturday, October 10, 1874. WHOLE No. 143.

PORTER & COATES' NEW BOOKS.

I.

Ready this day.

GENTIANELLA.

A Novel By Mrs. Randolph. No. 10 of the "International Series," $1.25. Also cloth, black and gold, $1.50; paper, $1.

This is the first book by this author published in America, and is confidently recommended.

II.

THE WILD NORTH LAND.

The Story of a Winter Journey with dogs across Northern North America. By Captain W. F. Butler, author of "The Great Lone Land." With 16 handsome full-page engravings. Crown 8vo. Toned paper. Cloth extra, black and gold, $2.50.

"Certainly he seems to have some excellent qualifications for the task. The love of adventure breathes through every page of his book, and gives it a pleasant flavor of originality. . . . Capt. Butler succeeds in infecting us with the spirit of enjoyment, his book carries us along with it."—Saturday Review, London. [Just issued.]

III.

CELEBRITIES OF THE PAST AND PRESENT.

By Malcolm Macauley. Essays and Sketches, biographical, historical, and critical, mostly adapted from Sainte-Beuve. 12mo, cloth extra, $1.50.

A very charming book of sketches, sure to have a good sale. [Just ready.]

IV.

PENNSYLVANIA ILLUSTRATED.

A general sketch of the State, its Scenery, History, and Industries. With over 100 fine engravings. Small 4to. Toned paper. Handsomely engraved cover, 50 cents; cloth, $1.

This book gives more for the price than any thing else to be had. [Just issued.]

V.

CHASTE AS ICE, PURE AS SNOW.

A Novel. By Mrs. M. C. Despard, (a new writer.) No. 9 of the "International Series," $1.25. Also in cloth, black and gold, $1.50; paper, $1.

"In plot, character, and dramatic movement, it is quite equal to many of the startling sensational novels of the day; in spirit, style, and purpose, it is far above them. In a certain refinement of thought and subtle analysis of motive, the author has shown herself quite the equal of some of the more famous English female novelists. . . . We rate it among the good novels—good in its diction, in its scope and power, in its reflective philosophy, in its idealizations, and in its artistic execution."—The Christian at Work, New-York.

VI.

A New Edition brought down to May 17.

HIRAM WOODRUFF

ON THE

TROTTER HORSE OF AMERICA.

HOW TO TRAIN AND DRIVE HIM.

With reminiscences of the turf, the results of the author's FORTY YEARS' EXPERIENCE and unequalled skill in Training and Driving, together with a store of interesting matter concerning celebrated American horses. Edited by Charles J. Foster. Eighteenth edition, with the addition of nearly 100 pages of NEW MATTER, consisting of an Appendix by Charles J. Foster, a full Index and a Register of Performances in the past fifty years; and with 7 full-page engravings of famous trotters. Price, in attractive cloth binding, $2.50.

VII.

THE SPORTSMAN'S CLUB
AMONG THE TRAPPERS.

By Harry Castlemon, author of the "Gunboat Series," "Rocky Mountain Series," etc., etc. Illustrated by Bensell. Cloth, black and gold, $1.25. [Just issued.]

This is the third and completing volume of the "Sportsman's Club Series," which now consists of: "The Sportsman's Club in the Saddle," $1.25; "The Sportsman's Club Afloat," $1.25; "The Sportsman's Club among the Trappers," $1.25.

The Series, 3 vols., in a neat box, $3.75. [Just completed.]

PORTER & COATES, Publishers,
PHILADELPHIA.

JAMES R. OSGOOD & CO.'S NEW BOOKS.

CLOTH OF GOLD, AND OTHER POEMS.

By THOMAS BAILEY ALDRICH, author of "Prudence Palfrey," "Marjorie Daw," etc. 1 vol. 16mo. Uniform with Aldrich's popular stories. $1.50.

This volume is a revised, rearranged, and enlarged edition of Aldrich's "Poems." The London Athenæum, noticing these, remarked: "It is some years since we have met with an American poet so rich in achievement and promise as Mr. Aldrich." And Harper's Weekly said: "Mr. Aldrich is indeed a poet of no ordinary power."

THE STORY OF A HOUSE.

By VIOLETT-LE-DUC. Illustrated by the author. Translated from the French by GEORGE M. TOWLE. 1 vol. 8vo. $5.

A book at once thoroughly entertaining and practical. It describes the successive steps and processes in the building of a house, from the first stroke in laying the foundation to the final perfecting touch. Its definitions, simplicity, and abundant illustrations render it peculiarly clear and valuable.

CHOICE RECEIPTS.

By M. S. W. Square 4to. $1.50.

This volume differs in one important respect from numerous cook-books—every receipt here given will bear the test of experiment. There are receipts and receipts, as every mistress of a ménage knows to her sorrow. There are some that read well, but—like Dora's sums in "David Copperfield"—they don't come out right; there are others that are failures even when they are successful. In preparing this collection, the writer has accepted nothing from tradition; she has gone to the kitchen rather than to M. Blot or M. Francatelli for her data; each receipt is the practical result of repeated trials by several hands, and, like a proverb, represents the wit of many.—From the Preface.

THE WORKS OF MRS. JAMESON.

A new revised edition, in ten volumes. With steel plates. $1.50 per volume.

"I do not know a writer whose works breathe more of the spontaneous—the free. Beauty and truth seem to come to her unsought."—Dr. W. E. Channing.

"Mrs. Jameson's diligence of research; her charms of style; the acuteness, force, and justice of her remarks; her characteristic touches; the racy and piquant manner with which she relates an anecdote, are too well known to require eulogy from us."—London Court Journal.

* * For sale by Booksellers. Sent post-paid, on receipt of price, by the Publishers.

PROSPECTUS.

An apology is scarcely needed at the present day for claiming a modest place for the History of Art in the educational establishments for both sexes. In modern times, art has attained to a position of such great importance, that no one with any claim to culture can fail to take an interest in it, or dispense with acquaintance with the great masters and their most famous works; and it appears to us that teachers in the higher schools will not have acquitted themselves fully of their task if they fail to arouse and sustain this interest and to impart this knowledge.

It was to supply the want of a handy guide to the History of Art that this volume was compiled, and no pains have been spared to render the book a complete introduction to the History of Art at all times and in all countries.

A NEW HISTORY OF ENGLAND.

From the year 1830-1874. By W. N. MOLESWORTH. 3 vols., small 8vo, new, revised and cheaper edition. $7.50.

"It is a great misfortune that the history of our country that is nearest our own times young men are least acquainted with. It is not written in histories that were read at school, and they are not old enough, as I am old enough, to remember almost every political fact since the great Reform Bill of 1832. I wish young men would read some history of this period. A neighbor and a friend of mine, a most intelligent and accomplished clergyman—Mr. Molesworth—has published a work, being a political history of England from the year 1830—that is from the first Reform Bill—until within the last two or three years; a book honestly written, in which facts are plainly—and I believe truly—stated, and a work which would give great information to all the young men of the country, if they could be prevailed upon to read it."—John Bright.

NOTES IN SEASON.

ON Tuesday morning, the Cincinnati Book Trade-sale (the forty-ninth) opens with the invoice of Messrs. Lee & Shepard, of Boston. Their invoice takes up some 29 pages, and represents such popular writers as Oliver Optic, Sophie May, Mrs. Osgood, etc. Messrs. Lee & Shepard are succeeded by James Campbell and J. P. Mendum, of Boston; Mr. Ashmead, of Philadelphia; and Messrs. Hurd & Houghton, of New-York, the latter offering their usual variety and assortment. Next come the Roberts, and William F. Gill & Co., with goodly-sized invoices; then Hinton, of New-York; Claxton, Remsen & Haffelfinger, of Philadelphia, and others. On Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, the stationery, diaries, and blank work will be offered. A supplementary catalogue will be issued at the opening of the sale. (See adv.)

THE second and third volumes concluding Mr. Froude's picturesque historical studies of "The English in Ireland," will be published the middle of next week by the Scribners, and Dr. Holland's new poem, "The Mistress of the Manse," will follow immediately. This is a pleasing story of wedded life on the banks of the Hudson, and of it at least ten thousand copies will be printed for a first edition.

THE Appletons have nearly ready Bayard Taylor's "School History of Germany," based on the three leading German works, and filled out from still other sources. It makes a 16mo of about 500 pages, and has many illustrations from the German, and is of course readable as well as reliable. "Chapters in Political Economy," by Albert S. Bolles, deals with such current topics as last fall's panic, the worth of gold, and so on, and ought to command attention. Foster's Physiology, and Vol. V. of the Popular Science Monthly, will also be published immediately.

IN addition to "Linley Rochford" and "Losing to Win," the Sheldons have now ready "My Life on the Plains," by Gen. Custer, our greatest Indian-fighter, a thrilling book that makes a large octavo, from whose attractive cover a huge buffalo's head looks out.

THE Putnams will have ready immediately Mr. Bayard Taylor's entertaining letters descriptive of "Egypt and Iceland," in two shapes—a 12mo, uniform with his previous works, and a 16mo, in the pretty "Saunterer's Series" style. Mrs. Rossiter Johnston's story for children, "Roddy's Romance," and Prof. Hill's text-book on "Qualitative Analysis" will be issued at the same time.

CHARLES K. ADAMS's scholarly yet readable work on "Monarchy and Democracy in France," which is very apropos for the coming meeting of the French Assembly, and Gautier's "Tour in Russia," whose art-descriptions are exceptionally beautiful, are promised for this month by Henry Holt & Co.

NEW BOOKS (reported too late for insertion in Lists).—Jas. R. Osgood & Co. publish this week (see advertisement): Cloth of Gold, and other Poems, by Thomas Bailey Aldrich, 16mo, $1.50; The Story of a House, from the French of Viollet le Duc, illustr., 8vo, $1.50; Choice Receipts, by M. S. W., sq. 4to, $1.50; Mrs. Jameson's Works, new rev. ed., in 10 vols., ea. $1.50.—Hurd & Houghton (see adv.) have ready: The Daily Service, a Book of Offices for Daily Use through all the Seasons of the Christian Year, 16mo, $2.50; next week, Architecture for General Students, by Caroline W. Horton, 16mo, $1.50.—T. B. Peterson & Bros. have just ready: Five Thousand a Year, by Mrs. Henry Wood, printed from advance proof-sheets, 8vo, pap., 25 c.; they also announce (see adv.) an entirely new edition of Mrs. Southworth's works.

Central Booksellers' Association.

[OFFICIAL.]

THE first regular meeting of the CENTRAL BOOKSELLERS' ASSOCIATION will be held at the St. Nicholas Hotel, New-York, on Tuesday, October 13th, at 11 o'clock A.M.

A full attendance of the Trade is requested, as important business is to come before the meeting.

An Important Point.

IN the organization of the trade, one matter of importance seems to have been generally forgotten. It is most vital that all district and local organizations should recognize in their constitutions the American Book-Trade Association as the national organization, of which all others are divisions. This has been omitted in most of the associations so far organized, but it is an omission that should be remedied at once, and we trust the Central Association will, for its part, see to this at its meeting on Tuesday next. It may not seem of much moment just now, but if our readers will look forward, they will see that many cases are likely to come up in which very much will depend upon the national association being a court of appeal, to which all questions between districts and localities may be referred for final settlement. Each smaller organization should have its committee of arbitration, but that of the American Association should be recognized as supreme, and accordingly constituted each year with the utmost carefulness. We suggest that recognition of the American Book-Trade Association should be made in the preamble to every local constitution."

WE call the especial attention of the Eastern trade to the announcement of the first meeting of the Central Booksellers' Association, at the St. Nicholas Hotel, New-York (Parlor G), next Tuesday. A movement to organize New-York, Brooklyn, and Jersey City retailers into a local association will be initiated by President Randolph later in the month.

EDUCATIONAL CATALOGUE.—CORRECTION.—The price of Olney's University Algebra and Key, given by misprint as $1 each, should read $2 each. Make correction in copies of the catalogue used for reference.

The New Postal Law.

ON January 1st the new postal system adopted by the last congress will go into operation, working great change in our present system. This change to be effected is a twofold one: (1) In providing for the prepayment of postage on newspapers and periodicals according to their weight in bulk, instead of rating each newspaper or magazine according to its specific weight; and (2) in requiring the prepayment of the postage to the postmaster at the office of deposit, and at the time of deposit, instead of leaving such prepayment to be made quarterly either at the office of deposit or the office of delivery, as at present. When the new system is fully at work, the postal authorities look to a marked and beneficial effect on the revenues by securing the collection of a very large amount of postage which, owing to the complicated and defective nature of the present laws and regulations on that subject, has not been collected. The new plan consists in weighing the packages sent by the publishers in bulk, postage being paid at the rate of 2 cents a pound for newspapers and 3 cents for magazines. A numbered receipt will be given the messenger, and on the "stub" in the receipt-book proper stamps will be affixed and canceled by the postmaster, which stubs at intervals will be sent to Washington. As the stamps will be furnished and charged to all postmasters at their face value, it will be seen that those thus canceled and returned will serve at once as checks and vouchers of the amount received for newspaper postage during each quarter. They can be used only in the manner described above, being valueless for prepayment of postage when attached to mail matter, and as their use is confined to postmasters, they offer no temptation to counterfeiters.

MESSRS. PORTER & COATES will shortly issue a new American edition of Stonehenge's "Rural Sports," which treats of shooting, fishing, hunting, coursing, athletics, yachting, racing, boating, pedestrianism, and various other out-door sports. This new edition will be specially suited to American sportsmen, as it contains several new pages devoted to base-ball and other distinctively national sports. "Gentiana," by Mrs. Randolph, a society novel, will be shortly added to their International series.

BOOKS RECEIVED.

LITTLE CLASSICS, edited by Rossiter Johnson. (James R. Osgood & Co.) The second volume of this dainty series is specially designated as "Intellect," and contains the following stories: "The House and the Brain," by E. Bulwer Lytton; "D'Outre Mort," by Miss Spofford; "The Fall of the House of Usher," by Poe; "Chops the Dwarf," by Dickens; "Wakefield," by Hawthorne; "Murder considered as one of the Fine Arts," by De Quincey, and "The Captain's Story," by Rebecca Harding Davis. The merits of all the stories are sufficiently marked to rank them as classical, though the grouping them under the title of "Intellect" seems straining a point in several instances. However, the "series," so far as published, is so exceptionally good, that its own merits will carry it, spite of its general or special titles, which do not strike one as particularly happy. 16mo, red-edged, cloth, $1.

CORRESPONDENCE OF WILLIAM ELLERY CHANNING, D.D., AND LUCY AIKIN, edited by Anna Letitia Le Breton. (Roberts Brothers.) This correspondence covers the last sixteen years of the Rev. Dr. Channing's life, and contains the freest expressions of both writers' opinions on matters of religion, politics, and literature, and of the eminent men and women of their day. As an agreement was made between the writers that the correspondence should belong to the survivor, the letters became the property of Miss Aikin, who gave them to her niece, the lady who appears as the editor of the work. Though a few of Miss Aikin's letters were published in a Memoir of her, issued in 1864, none of those of Dr. Channing have ever before been given to the world. The correspondence is now given complete, and will be found singularly rich in thought and expression. 12mo, cloth, $2.

GERMAN UNIVERSITY LIFE, by Heinrich Steffens. Translated by William L. Gage. (J. B. Lippincott & Co.) The title of this book scarcely indicates its character. It is really a brief biography of Heinrich Steffens, a Norwegian, born in 1773, who passed a greater part of his life as a student and lecturer in the German Universities. He was the friend of Goethe, Schiller, Schelling, Fichte, Schlegel, and other great writers of his day, of whom his book is full of interesting reminiscences. Mr. Gage deserves the thanks of the English reading public, in sparing them the tedious redundancy of the original work, "The Story of My Life," which is in ten volumes, and covers four thousand pages. He has reduced it to this one small volume, giving at the same time a most attractive book. 12mo, cloth, $1.25.

THE WILD NORTH LAND, by Major W. F. Butler. (Porter & Coates.) Major Butler's account of his first trip through the unexplored portion of British America met with considerable success under the name of "The Great Lone Land." His present book describes a similar journey he made on foot, and entirely alone—if we except an Esquimaux dog, an old and tried friend—starting, in the autumn of 1872, from the Red River in the North, reaching Lake Athabasca in the following March, and from thence journeying along the frozen Peace River, and through its great cañon in the Rocky Mountains, arriving at British Columbia in the end of May. From here he followed a trail of 350 miles through the forests of New-Caledonia, emerged at Quesnelle, on the Frazer River, down which he proceeded to the extreme western corner of the British possessions. This remarkable journey, mostly performed on foot, led the narrator into many strange scenes, and into portions of the country none but trappers or savages had ever before trod. He is graphic in the extreme in his descriptions, giving at the same time an amount of valuable information the general reader will find very acceptable, about a region little known. A very handsomely gotten-up book, full of fine illustrations. 12mo, cloth, $2.50.

THE COMING WAVE, by Oliver Optic. (Lee & Shepard.) This makes the fourth volume of the popular "Yacht Club Series," and is an entirely independent story. Most of the incidents take place on Penobscot Bay, and relate chiefly to boats and yachting. The principal characters are two working boys, who do nothing remarkable, but are strictly honest and upright, and set a fine example to all boys in their pluck and perseverance. Like the rest of the series, the book will be found extremely interesting. 16mo, cloth, $1.50.

HOLDEN WITH THE CORDS, by W. M. L. Jay. (E. P. Dutton & Co.) The writer of this novel is best known as the author of "Shiloh." It is also a religious novel, with a great deal more power than its predecessor. The introductory chapter gives the key to the title. A party of medical students are preparing to undergo an examination for their degree, when one of their number is missed, and found dead in his room, poisoned, it is supposed, but whether through accident or design can not be decided. A diamond belonging to one of the students, found in his glass, points suspicion towards him as the destroyer of his friend. He flies from the college, changes his name, wanders through foreign countries, vainly endeavoring to wipe out the memory of his sin, and rid himself of its consequences. But he can not escape; he is "holden with the cords of his sin," bound hand and foot, sinking deeper and deeper into iniquity, which at last overwhelms him. 12mo, cloth, $2.

CHRISTIAN LOVE, by Jonathan Edwards, edited from the original manuscript by the Rev. Tryon Edwards. (Presbyterian Board of Publication.) The sixth edition of a work which has been extensively circulated and is widely known as a valuable treatise on the Christian spirit and life, and for the broadness and comprehensiveness of its views, and for the clearness with which it is written. 12mo, cloth, $1.25.

AMERICAN PIONEERS AND PATRIOTS, by John S. C. Abbott. (Dodd & Mead.) The volume just issued of this series is devoted to "Captain William Kidd and others of the pirates who ravaged the seas and the continents of America, two hundred years ago." It is somewhat amazing to find this bold buccaneer classed with "pioneers and patriots," and fear the author will mislead the too-credulous minds of the young in thus honoring him. The story of the horrible deeds of Bonnet, Barthelemy, and Lolonois, and the female pirate, Mary Read, all of whose histories, he assures us, "seem to be well authenticated," can scarcely serve any other purpose than that of catering to the morbid appetite which many possess for murders and crimes—in spite of the profoundly philosophical reflections of the author in the preface. 12mo, cloth, $1.50.

CELEBRITIES OF THE PAST AND PRESENT, by Malcolm Maceuen. (Porter & Coates.) These sketches, "chiefly adapted from Sainte-Beuve," according to the title-page, include the names of Richelieu, Mazarin, Montesquieu, Madame Récamier, Lord Chesterfield, Adrienne Le Couvreur, Thackeray, etc. A few of them have appeared in Appletons' Journal and Lippincott's Magazine; the rest are new to the reading public, and are most interesting matter. 12mo, cloth, $1.50.

NORWOOD, by Henry Ward Beecher. (J. B. Ford & Co.) A new edition of a novel which has already attained considerable celebrity as a picture of New-England village life, and as a romance in which the characters are depicted by a master hand. The book is very beautifully bound and gotten up. 12mo, cloth, $2.00.

YALE LECTURES ON PREACHING, by Henry Ward Beecher. (J. B. Ford & Co.) The third series of lectures delivered before the Theological Department of Yale College, comprising in all twelve lectures, namely: "The Preacher's Book," "How to use the Bible," "The True Method of Presenting God," "Conceptions of Divinity," "Practical use of Divine Ideal," "The Manifestations of God through Christ," etc. 12mo, cloth, $1.50.

GERMAN UNIVERSITIES, by James Morgan Hart. (G. P. Putnam's Sons.) Mr. Hart entered as a student in the Göttingen University in 1861. This book is merely the story of his life there, related in the most simple and unpretentious manner. In it is embodied considerable statistical information and practical suggestions, with a comparison of the German and American systems of higher education. A well-written and thoroughly enjoyable book, giving an exceedingly interesting account of how students live, study, and pass their time and spend their money. 12mo, cloth, $1.75.

LITERARY AND TRADE NEWS.

"CLOTH of Gold, and other Poems," includes all of Thomas Bailey Aldrich's poems which he cares to keep, and is therefore to be accepted as the complete edition of his poetical works. It is full of truly delicate poems, such as few can write, dear "Baby Bell" amongst them; and the success of his "Marjorie Daw" and "Story of a Bad Boy" ought to make this volume very salable. The Osgoods have also just ready Viollet le Duc's "Story of a House," in which even the minute details of house-building, such as joints and like small things, are entertainingly treated of in story guise, and illustrated with cuts.

THE trade ought to be especially interested in George Sand's latest novel, "My Sister Jeanne," for it is translated by Mr. Crocker, whose Literary World everybody delights in. The story is very original, especially in its leading female character, is told by a French smuggler's son, and is said by French critics to rank among George Sand's best works.

MESSRS. JOHN CHURCH & Co., of Cincinnati, have in press a somewhat remarkable musical work, to be sung at the approaching musical festival; a "Hymn of Triumph," by Johann Brahms, an octette chorus, and probably the most difficult work ever presented, either in this country or England. They are also to issue shortly Bach's "Magnificat" in D, which has been produced in this country.

THE new novel by Mary J. Holmes, "West Lawn," was written during her visit to Switzerland the past summer. It is ready this week at Carleton's.

AN excellent trio of books is promised by Dodd & Mead for this month. "Strength and Beauty" is the title of President Mark Hopkins's papers for young men, who, if they take to the book as well as the Williams College boys used to take to him, will give it a great sale. Mr. Stockton's very pleasant juvenile, "What Might Have Been Expected," which tells of how a bright boy and girl down in Virginia helped an old darkey woman along, and has delighted the readers of St. Nicholas, and a further volume of Mr. Abbott's "American Pioneers and Patriots," about Paul Jones, the naval hero, are the other two.

"THE DAILY SERVICE" book is now ready at Hurd & Houghton's, in very handsome shape. It is a book of Episcopalian offices, and is very timely in view of the meeting of the General Convention of that Church in New-York.

WHAT promises to be a work of much interest is a publication by J. W. Bouton, on the 15th, of the "Original Lists of Emigrants, Religious Exiles, Political Rebels, Serving-men sold for a term of years, etc., who went from Great Britain to the American Plantations, 1600—1700." The book will give, in addition to the mere lists of persons, their ages, the localities in which they lived in the mother country, the names of the ships in which they sailed, with other interesting particulars. It is compiled from MSS. preserved in the State paper department of the English public record office, and is edited by J. C. Holton. It will be in one volume, a crown quarto, printed on fine paper, and will sell for $10, which is only about two-thirds the price corresponding to the English. A few copies are published on large paper. Several hundred copies of this work are also subscribed for.

A WORK on mental philosophy, entitled "New Elements from Old Subjects," lately published by the Philadelphia house of Claxton, Remsen & Haffelfinger, makes the rather bold attempt of establishing a new science of mind. This it does by laying down a psychological law the author claims to have discovered—that we think in correlation on all subjects whatever—to the explaining of which the volume is devoted. The book is written by a Mr. John Gaskell, an Englishman who came to this country in 1819 and died in Philadelphia in 1856, leaving this book in legacy to his friend John W. Huff, who now, at the lapse of twenty years, gives it to the public, having delayed its appearance till he thought the age ready to receive it, but who fears a further postponement would cause it to be anticipated by some rival thinker.

THE first volume of a translation of the Count de Paris' History of the Rebellion may be looked for in November or December from the press of Porter & Coates. Mr. L. Tasistro, of Washington, formerly translator for the State Department, has been engaged to prepare the English version, and the value of the work to American readers will be considerably enhanced by careful editing and annotation at the hands of a distinguished general officer of the army, whose name the publishers do not yet feel at liberty to make public. It is expected that the work will make three thick octavo volumes. The large maps which accompany the French edition will be reduced in size so as to be bound with the letter-press.

THE fourth volume of Guizot's "France" is in type, and the fifth and last will also shortly be sent to press. This work was just completed before the death of the author. Estes & Lauriat, of Boston, are the American publishers.

HURD & HOUGHTON are making a decided specialty of law books, and their issues this fall in this direction are very important. Among these are the first volume of "Criminal Law Reports," by N. St. J. Green, lecturer on that subject at the Boston school, which series, after the issue of two volumes, will appear annually, embracing in each volume all the criminal cases decided by courts of last resort in the United States and England, with notes and cross references. The eleventh American from the ninth English edition of Chitty on Contracts, enlarged by Hon. J. C. Perkins, in two volumes, and Bigelow's Insurance Reports, Volume III., are also ready, all at $7.50 per vol. Among other works, are a treatise on the Laws of Sales, by Judah P. Benjamin, Q.C., the ex-Confederate Attorney-General, edited here with reference to American decisions; Massachusetts Reports CIX. and CX., and Bennett's Fire Insurance Cases, III.

PROF. L. P. HICKOK's new book, "The Logic of Reason, Absolutely Universal and Eternal," will be published early in October by Lee & Shepard.

DUNLAP & BLICKENSDECKER, of Erie, Pa., have about ready an "Abridgement of Elementary Law," comprising the principles of Blackstone, Evidence and Pleading, in a pocket edition, for the use of students and young practitioners.

T. WHITTAKER, of New-York, has lately received a large invoice of the publications of Henry S. King & Co., of London, including a full line of their theological works, and a good assortment of their miscellaneous publications.

Two new pieces will appear in the new volume of the cabinet edition of Tennyson's Works: "In the Garden at Swinton" and "The Voice and the Peak." The illustration is a view of a favorite spot in the garden at Swinton, the seat of Sir J. Barrington Simeon.

MISS CATHERINE E. BEECHER's "Educational Reminiscences and Suggestions" is about ready at J. B. Ford & Co.'s.

THE plates of Elements of Agriculture, by George E. Waring, Jr., formerly published by the Tribune Association, have passed into the hands of the Orange Judd Publishing Company, who will soon issue a new edition.

A NEW edition of Mrs. Horace Mann's "The Flower People," illustrated by Mrs. Rose Lathrop, daughter of Nathaniel Hawthorne; and a dramatization of Mrs. A. M. Diaz's "William Henry," by Mrs. George L. Chaney, are to be added to the Osgood's list.

ONE of the dailies notices "Gunnar, a Norse Legend."

"THE CHRISTIAN IN THE WORLD," by Rev. Dr. D. W. Faunce, of Concord, N. H., is the essay which received the triennial prize of $500, left in charge of the Trustees of Dartmouth for the essay best calculated to counteract worldly influences upon Christianity. It will be published by Roberts Brothers.

MRS. FURNESS's Concordance to the Poems of Shakespeare contains 33,000 entries.

A NEW Spiritualistic work will soon be issued by G. W. Carleton & Co., entitled, "The Identity of Primitive Christianity and Modern Spiritualism," by Eugene Crowell, M.D.

The same firm will also publish a novel by Julie P. Smith, rather queerly called "Ten Old Maids (and Five of them were Wise, and Five of them were Foolish)."

IT is an occasion of no little pride to an American to learn of the success of Mr. Bayard Taylor's translation of Faust in England, where it is already accepted as the standard. It is published there from English plates by Isbister, the two parts in two volumes at 28s. for the work, and it reaches a sale of three to four hundred copies (six or eight hundred volumes) yearly, on which Mr. Taylor receives copyright. We are glad to learn also of the success in this country of the superb series of translations, published by Osgood, of which this is a part. This series is one of the greatest triumphs of American literature, and should be a corner-stone in every American library. Of the series, Longfellow's Dante has been longest out, and has enjoyed the largest sale, reaching to eight editions. Next comes Bryant's "Homer," of which the "Iliad" sells in double ratio to the "Odyssey." Then Taylor's "Faust," Cranch's "Virgil," and last, Dante's "New Life," translated by Prof. Charles Eliot Norton, which was published so long ago as 1867, but seems little known except to Dante scholars. It is strange that this most tender and sublime of love-stories should have escaped the general reader.—Evening Mail.

THE Bibliothèque Nationale of France is said to include now 2,077,571 volumes. Of these, 221,836 are now in printed catalogues.

"LES PUBLICATIONS DE LA RUE," by M. Mailard, collects the songs, pamphlets, and satires sold in the Paris streets during the last Revolution, into an interesting volume.

PROF. ZUPITZA is to re-edit Aelfric's Anglo-Saxon Grammar, and will probably publish it for the Vienna Academy.

HENRY G. BOHN, the well-known London bookseller and publisher, in a letter to the London Bookseller, soundly rates the Athenaeum for the singular want of bibliographical knowledge displayed by it in a recent paragraph. It was stated that Horace Walpole's letters in eight volumes were out of print. Mr. Bohn is the publisher of the work, which is not out of print, nor is it in eight volumes. Moreover, the offending paragraph was copied by the Publishers' Circular, and Mr. Bohn's letter to the Athenæum, correcting the statement, remained unnoticed. Mr. Bohn's knowledge of books is very extensive and accurate, and a blunder of this kind, made by one journal of presumed authority in book matters, and indorsed by another, must have appeared to him unpardonable.

SOME personal reminiscences of Beethoven, Goethe, and Mendelssohn will shortly be published by M. Henri de Meister, who was well acquainted with the three great men. With them will also appear some unpublished letters of Mendelssohn, addressed to Goethe, Beethoven, and himself.

MR. GEORGE REIMAR, of Berlin, has a Shakespeare Dictionary in press, of which twenty-one sheets have already been printed.

MESSRS. CHURCHILL, of London, have this year placed in their Catalogue a complete index to the whole of the works published by them, and appended dates; and the Athenæum wishes all publishers would do the like.

It is announced that Mr. Alexander Grosart, of Blackburn, Lancashire, is editing a complete edition of the poems and miscellaneous works of Alexander Wilson, the ornithologist, to be published in Paisley, Scotland, Wilson's birthplace. The work is dedicated to Mr. George W. Childs, of Philadelphia, "In recognition of his well-won success, of his love for his ancestral Scotland, and of his generous giving to every good cause." Wilson came to Philadelphia in 1794, and is buried in the old Swedes church in that city. His death took place August 13, 1813.

A "ROMANCE OF ACADIA, Two Centuries Ago," from a sketch by the late Charles Knight, is a tale founded on the early history of Nova Scotia, begun by Charles Knight, and finished by his daughter and grand-daughter. It will be published, in the usual three-volume English shape, by the Lows.

ENGLAND boasts one author, Mr. William H. G. Kingston, "whose prolific head and pen have given to his wide-world readers more than one hundred separate publications, varying in size from the three-volume novel to the short tales for the young, besides various contributions to periodical publications." He is now asking a pension.

"MISS BRADDON'S new novel" is again "out" in London. This time it is "Lost for Love."

A SERIES of stories by Mr. Edward Jenkins, M.P., author of "Ginx's Baby," entitled "Legends of Muskoka," is begun in the September number of the St. James' Magazine. Muskoka is a well-known district in Canada, devoted to free-grant settlers. Meanwhile, where is Mr. Jenkins' long-promised novel?

The Duty on the Manufacture of Paper.

THE following letter to Appraiser Darling refers to the duty on the manufacture of paper:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 17. }

SIR—It appears that some misapprehension exists in regard to the distinction made by the Department in the present construction of the duty on manufactures of paper, printed matter, engravings, etc. It is not designed to change essentially the classification and rates of duty heretofore imposed on these articles, with the single exception, perhaps, that the abatement of 10 per centum to some extent allowed previous to the act of June 22, 1874, is not admitted under the construction necessarily given to the terms of that act. The rates imposed now are, therefore: On printed matter, 25 per cent ad valorem without reduction; on engravings, prints, printed figures, and illustrations, printed not from type but from designs or plates, whether colored or uncolored, all remain as heretofore—25 per cent ad valorem, without the reduction of 10 per cent; embossed paper, stamped and in various ways manufactured, also heavy cards of various forms and for further ornamentation in a variety of ways have been declared to be properly classified as manufactures of paper at 35 per cent ad valorem, less 10 per cent. The distinction between the articles properly to be classed as manufactures of paper and those which are engravings or assimilated to engravings, prints or assimilated to prints, printed matter or assimilated to printed matter, is somewhat difficult to determine, and it is the intention of the Department to construe such classification liberally, and not impose the duty prescribed for manufactures of paper on articles other than those which constitute a change in the form of the paper. Printing on it with type or by impression or design, through the use of plates, does not effect such change. Where several sheets of paper are pressed together for embossing, such as heavy cards or other like articles, the rate applied to manufactures of paper should be imposed. Labels ordinarily known and designated as printed labels, although prepared for affixing to any surface by some adhesive substance, are properly to be classed as printed matter.

THE EPOCHS OF HISTORY.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.

The marked favor with which the initial volumes of this valuable series, THE EPOCHS OF HISTORY, have been received justifies the announcement of a modification and extension of the original scheme, which must commend the series still more emphatically to the American public. The future volumes, instead of being simple reprints of the English editions, as THE ERA OF THE PROTESTANT REVOLUTION, THE CRUSADES, and the THIRTY YEARS' WAR have been, will be carefully edited, whenever this may seem desirable, by American authors. Volumes devoted to eras in our own history will also be added to the series from time to time, thus thoroughly Americanizing it, and adapting it fully to the wants of American students. The names of these new volumes, with the other changes proposed, will shortly be announced.

NOW READY.

BAYARD TAYLOR'S NEW VOLUME.

Egypt and Iceland in the Year 1874. With an Account of an Expedition to the Fyoom, (never before printed.) By BAYARD TAYLOR. Square 16mo, cloth extra, $1.50; 12mo, uniform with the Household edition of the Works, $1.50.

"The letters from Iceland by Bayard Taylor in The New-York Tribune contain very interesting descriptions of that country and of the grand millennial festival which was celebrated there on the 6th and 7th of August. These letters have done more to draw attention to this remote part of the world than any other publications of our times. They describe the incidents of the voyage thither, including a visit to the Faroe Islands, and they abound in delineation of scenery and of life such as the common world is wholly unfamiliar with. They will undoubtedly be collected into a volume on Mr. Taylor's return to the United States, and when thus collected, they will form a most interesting addition to the long series of books of travel which he has given to the public."—Providence Journal.

Lecture Notes on Qualitative Analysis. By HENRY B. HILL, A.M., Assistant Prof. of Chemistry in Harvard University. 16mo, cloth.

Sophisms of Protection. By FREDERIC BASTIAT. With Preface by Horace White. Popular Manual Series. 12mo, cloth, $1.00.

"Contains the most telling statements of the leading principles of the Free-trade theory ever published, and is perhaps unsurpassed in the happiness of its illustrations."—N. Y. Nation.

LATELY PUBLISHED.

German Universities. A Narrative of Personal Experience, and a Critical Comparison of the System of Higher Education in Germany with those of England and the United States. By Prof. JAMES MORGAN HART. 12mo, cloth extra, $1.75.

"I find it admirable in conception and execution. . . . It will be a real help to many students. . . . I especially like the author's fairness and squareness and perfect freedom from 'gammon.'"—Prof. Moses Coit Tyler, University of Michigan.

"The narrative portions of the book are charming in their naive frankness of expression. . . . The purely didactic pages will command the interest of the reader by their solidity and suggestiveness."—N. Y. Tribune.

"A thorough work; will certainly pass into many editions."—Philadelphia Press.

"Of special value to every student, and of great interest to the whole educated public."—N. Y. Staats Zeitung.

Infant Diet. By A. JACOBI, M.D. Revised and adapted to popular use by Mary P. Jacobi, M.D. In "Handy Book Series." 12mo, cloth, 75 cents.

"Dr. Jacobi's rules are admirable in their simplicity and comprehensiveness."—N. Y. Tribune.

THE PARLOR KALEIDOSCOPE.

Patents reissued November 11th, 1873.

THE enormous success of the PARLOR KALEIDOSCOPE, (the sales having exceeded 27,000 during the Fall of 1873.) and the difficulty of manufacturing them in sufficient quantities to meet the demand for them, induces us to call your attention to it thus early in the season, with a view to induce you to send in your orders as early as possible. Last season the demand was largely in excess of the supply, notwithstanding a manufacturing capacity of OVER THREE HUNDRED AND FIFTY PER DAY; so that during the week preceding Christmas we had a great many orders which we were unable to fill.

In order to avoid a repetition of such an event, we beg that you will order your supplies AT ONCE. THE KALEIDOSCOPE will be the LEADING NOVELTY during the coming season, and dealers will find that by keeping a SAMPLE constantly on hand they can effect sales at ALL SEASONS. Each instrument is made with the UTMOST CARE, and will be found perfect in all respects.

TO BOOKSELLERS.

The action of the meeting of Publishers and Booksellers, recently held at Put-in-Bay, is most encouraging. The hearty co-operation which the AMERICAN BOOK TRADE ASSOCIATION is receiving from the many local associations now being formed in the larger cities, East and West, as well as the aid and support which it is receiving from our largest Publishers and Jobbers, goes far toward establishing its success. We most earnestly desire that the whole Trade throughout the United States shall give it their support, and thus make sure the success of the organization in maintaining and preserving the American Book Trade. To this end, we ask that all members of the Book Trade will connect themselves with the Association, by remitting to either of the undersigned, or to the Treasurer, TIMOTHY NICHOLSON, Richmond, Ind., Two Dollars, and authorizing the signature of their names to the Constitution.

NEW HISTORICAL WORKS.

BANCROFT AND PARKMAN.

MESSRS. LITTLE, BROWN & CO.

Have just published the following important contributions to the History of America:

A History of the United States from the Discovery of the American Continent. By GEORGE BANCROFT. Vol. X., completing the work, 8vo, cloth. $2.50.

With this volume is brought to a close a work to which the author has devoted a labor of forty years, and which has won for him a place among the ablest historians of all time. Each succeeding volume has confirmed the judgment of Edward Everett, pronounced soon after the beginning of the enterprise, that "it does such justice to its noble subject as to supersede the necessity of any future work of the same kind." To read this History is a patriotic duty, and it should constitute the nucleus of every household library.

Price of the work, complete in ten volumes, cloth, $25.00; sheep, $35.00; half calf, $45.00; calf, $55.00.

The Old Regime in Canada. By FRANCIS PARKMAN, author of "The Jesuits in North America," "Conspiracy of Pontiac," etc. (Vol. IV. of "France and England in North-America.") Small 8vo, cloth, $2.50.

In this volume the author presents the results of his researches into the early history of Canada under French rule, including in his view the century bounded by 1653 and 1753. He has had access to a mass of state papers in the archives of France which have never before been drawn upon, and with the material thus derived has wrought a historical fabric at once substantial and fascinating. The influences which controlled the colony in its beginning, and during its first century of life, the Roman Catholic mission spirit, and the monarchical ambition of Louis XIV., are delineated in character and operation with remarkable skill; and the extracts from the voluminous official correspondence maintained between France and Canada lend a singular and delightful piquancy to the narrative.

GEORGE SAND'S NOVELS.

MY SISTER JEANNIE.

A Novel. By George Sand.

TRANSLATED FROM THE FRENCH BY S. R. CROCKER.

One volume, uniform with our Library Edition of "Mauprat," "Antonia," "Monsieur Sylvestre," "The Snow-Man," "The Miller of Angibault."

"It might seem absurd to commend George Sand as a moral teacher; but we venture to say that no one can read this book carefully and searchingly without feeling conscious of a refining and ennobling influence. It is unlike any of the author's earlier novels with which we are familiar, being simple in thought and style, and pervaded by a certain gentleness of spirit that is very pleasant."—The Literary World.

II.

QUIET HOURS.

A Collection of Poems. Square 18mo, cloth, red edges. Price, $1.25.

As its title indicates, this is a collection of meditative poetry, culled from a wide source of reading, which will prove an agreeable companion for a "quiet hour."

JOHN ESTEN COOKE'S NEW NOVEL, JUSTIN HARLEY; A ROMANCE OF OLD VIRGINIA.

BY JOHN ESTEN COOKE,

Author of "Surry of Eagle's Nest," "Dr. Vandyke," etc., etc. Beautifully illustrated with eighteen full-page drawings by Mr. W. L. Shepard. One volume, 12mo, fine English cloth, ornate. Price, $1.75.
  "Justin Harley" is the latest, and by all odds the best, romance that has yet proceeded from the pen of Mr. John Esten Cooke, the celebrated Virginia romance writer. Fascinating as his former novels have been, "Justin Harley" far surpasses them in the ingenious workings of its plot, in its character-drawing, and in its sustained interest, which keeps the reader's attention engaged from the first page to the last.

LABBERTON'S HISTORICAL CHART; OR, HISTORY TAUGHT BY THE EYE.

RIDDELL.—THE MECHANICS' GEOMETRY,

For the use of Workmen in Wood, Stone, and Metals, plainly teaching the Carpenter, Joiner, Mason, Metal-plate Worker—in fact, the artisan in any and every branch of industry whatsoever—the constructive principles of his calling. Fully illustrated by fifty large plates, including several accurate explanatory Card-Board Models, mounted on linen, that can be readily put together, showing the principles of construction in a new and novel manner. By ROBERT RIDDELL, author of "The Practical Carpenter and Joiner," "New Elements of Hand Railing," etc., etc. One vol., quarto, cloth. Price, $5.

 This is decidedly the best adapted book for Mechanics that has ever been published. It is plain, but explicit; concise, yet comprehensive. Its diagrams are in themselves working models, as well as distinct drawings; and little or nothing is left to the imagination of the learner. Free from all scientific terms, it is truly the hand-book of every workingman.

HAVE NOW READY,

THE DAILY SERVICE.A Book of Offices for Daily Use through all the Seasons of the Christian Year.

1 vol. 16mo. pp. 536. Cloth, $2.50.

This work, the result of a long and careful study by several clergymen, is intended not as a substitute for the Prayer-Book, but as a supplement to it. It meets the want, often expressed, for a more varied service at special seasons, and is drawn from Scripture and the Ancient Liturgies. It contains Seven Daily Offices for Public Worship.A Morning and Evening Service for Each Season.*Special Services for Christmas Eve, Passion-Tide, and Easter Morn.*The Psalms arranged under Seventy-nine Selections.*Fifty Canticles from the Scriptures.*Seven Litanies and Five Hundred Prayers.

Especially adapted to family use, and use in schools, colleges, seminaries, and Sunday-schools.

READY NEXT WEEK.Architecture for General Students.

By CAROLINE W. HORTON.

With Descriptive Illustrations.

In one volume, 16mo, cloth, pp. 300. Price, $1.50.

This is a handbook which may serve as a text-book for instruction in the history of Architecture, its development in different periods, its division into styles, and the names of the several parts of public buildings. It treats of the ESSENTIAL PARTS AND STYLES OF BABYLONIAN AND ASSYRIAN ARCHITECTURE, EGYPTIAN, GRECIAN, AND ROMAN; the ARCHITECTURE OF THE CHRISTIAN PERIOD occupies the larger half of the book, closing with ARCHITECTURE IN AMERICA.

DESCRIPTIVE CUTS are scattered through the book, defining the several parts of the building, and FULL-PAGE ENGRAVINGS illustrate the general features of the great architectural periods. A GLOSSARY and a full INDEX complete the furnishing of the book.

The writer had especially in mind the needs of schools. It would only occupy pupils a half-year with two or three lessons a week. It is plain and simple in language, being intended not for professional but for general students in the art. The book, however, is not only a text-book; it will be found of great service to travelers, to many builders also, and to all who wish to acquire a rudimentary and general knowledge of Architecture.

RAY'S PATENTCHECK SYSTEM*LIBRARY REGISTER

The great superiority of this Record over others consists—

1. In its simplicity of arrangement; it is easily understood and one Librarian can do the work that would require two or three by the ordinary method.
2. It effectually prevents the borrowing by the scholar more than one book at a time without the knowledge of the Librarian, which, where other records are used, is frequently done.
3. It enables the Librarian to discover at a glance the name of the borrower and the number of each book loaned.
4. With this system, after a book is returned to the Library, it is impossible for the Librarian knowingly to loan it again without cancelling the previous record.
5. This record may be kept accurately without the Librarian being able to write a word or figure.
6. The record can, with care, be made to last for quite a number of years.
7. In the absence of the Librarian, any teacher or scholar can keep the record without danger of being led to commit a single error in loaning, either by the mistakes or false representations of those desiring to borrow.
8. Other systems are expensive, or difficult to manage; this is so simple that a child can manage it without danger of making a mistake, and so cheap that the poorest school will save money by using it.

Librarians have informed us that prior to using the Register, the money expended annually in replacing lost books would have paid for it several times over; since using it they have not lost any.

A New Story by the Author of "Shiloh."

HOLDEN WITH THE CORDS.

A Story by W. M. L. JAY.

12mo. $2.00.

3d Thousand. Now Ready.

"The author of this volume achieved sudden reputation and popularity by 'Shiloh,' a work of charming geniality and power, and in this her second effort it seems to us she has added to the brilliancy of her first triumph, and to the laurels thereby won."—Portland Argus.

"It has the ease and grace, the power and charm which one looks for often, but rarely finds. . . . The interest is keen in the story, but that should not prevent the reader from feeling the evident culture, the depth of study, and the love of art embodied in this novel. It is a superior and powerful work, full of thought, of observation, and of sound feeling."—Boston Transcript.

"We have rarely read a novel which in all respects has given us more satisfaction than this—a plot most skillfully drawn and carried through, giving the reader surprises to the end; characters which are evidently the result of careful thought and study, and the delineation of which can be hardly surpassed; and scenes and sketches of rare depth and beauty. It will be one of the most popular novels of the year."—Suffolk Co. Journal.

THE LIFE OF CHRIST.

BY THE

Rev. F. W. FARRAR, D.D., F.R.S.,

Two Volumes, 8vo. $7.00.

"At once popular and learned, at once devout and broad. It is a book for the people in the best possible sense; and so its style is simple and easy and attractive to an extraordinary degree. With a careful study of proportion and of order, both of time and of importance, we have the story of the childhood and manhood of the Lord Jesus told us about as fully and completely as we can expect ever to have it told. The book must take its place at once in the very front of that department of literature to which it belongs."—Scribner's Monthly.

From the London Literary World.

"That a solid and learned yet eloquent and graphic summary of the things which are most certainly believed among us concerning the Christ of history should have had a run greater than any book since Macaulay's 'History,' is a remarkable fact."

Over 8000 copies were issued in England in less than four months of day of publication.

Swallow Flights of Song.

By HARRIET McEVEN KIMBALL.

Square 16mo, bev. boards, gilt edge,
$1.25.

"Miss Kimball's writings are all marked by very great delicacy of conception, and a faultless purity as well in style as in sentiment. Much of the volume is given to devotional themes, to which this author's deeply spiritual nature strongly inclines her."—Springfield Daily Union.

Publishers Please Read This.

WE desire to call your attention to the fact that the CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE (the leading official organ of the Methodist Episcopal Church) heads the list of "strictly" religious newspapers published in the country, and circulates among the most intelligent families in the United States. Its articles are of the best and purest character. Its information with regard to the interests of the Church, both at home and abroad, is always complete—in fact, no department of the paper is ever found devoid of interest. As a religious family newspaper, it has no equal either in Europe or America, and in point of cost, while it is much larger than any one of the majority of religious newspapers, it is by far the cheapest weekly newspaper published. The publishers guarantee the circulation at this date to be over 42,000 copies weekly, and rapidly increasing. With our new and elegant Premium Steel Engraving, a copy of which we give to every subscriber, old and new, for 1875, we have every reason to believe that the circulation of the ADVOCATE will not fall much short during the coming year of 60,000 copies weekly. The ADVOCATE is acknowledged by the best advertisers to be a first-class paying medium.

No advertisements are knowingly allowed in its pages that are in any way humbug, and its rates are lower in proportion to circulation than any other first-class paper. The following Publishing Houses are among its regular patrons: D. Appleton & Co., Harper & Brothers, Robert Carter & Bros., Scribner, Armstrong & Co., J. B. Lippincott & Co., Ivison, Blakeman, Taylor & Co., J. R. Osgood & Co., etc., etc., etc., etc. Publishers who advertise, and who have never tried the ADVOCATE as an advertising medium, will find a trial of its pages satisfactory.

SCIENCE OF ELOCUTION.

With Exercises and Selections systematically arranged for acquiring the art of Reading and Speaking.

By S. S. HAMILL, A.M.,

Prof. of English Literature and Elocution, Illinois Wesleyan University, Bloomington, Ill.

12mo. Price, $1.75.

A volume could not possibly bear better testimonials than this from men every way capable of judging of its merits. Presidents of colleges and professional readers speak of it in unqualified terms. It is a grammar of the art of speaking. Its great features are its philosophical arrangement and its abounding and admirable illustrations. The Publishers have issued it in a most creditable manner. We heartily commend the work to our academic professors, and to all young speakers. It fills an important place among our higher text-books.

GAMES.

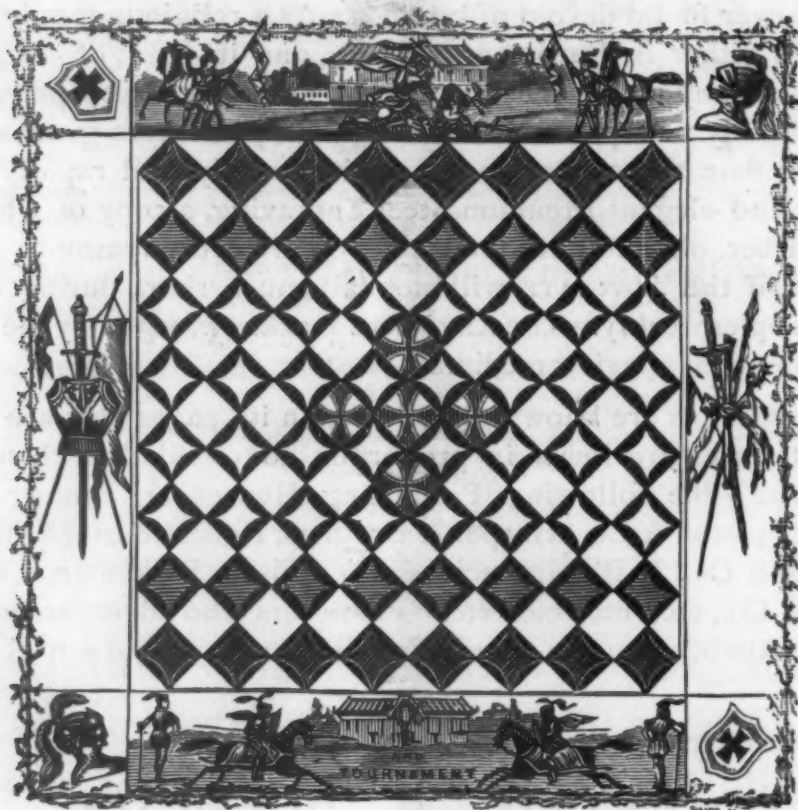

CLAXTON, REMSEN & HAFFELFINGER,

PUBLISHERS,

624, 626 and 628 Market Street, Philadelphia,

Have now ready for the Fall Trade a new and brilliant Game of Skill for Two Players, entitled,

TILT AND TOURNAMENT.

In presenting the Game of "Tilt and Tournament," the publishers do not hesitate to assert its decided superiority over many other games that are offered the public. Easily comprehended, it is sufficiently difficult to stimulate thought in youthful players, and thus profitable mental exercise is added to innocent recreation.

It is played by two persons, each being furnished with ten men—two knights and eight attendants. The combinations are such as to afford in a remarkable degree an opportunity for the full exercise of thought, while the interest in the game increases at every step. Old and young alike are attracted by it, thus rendering it a valuable addition to every household where home affections are cultivated.

Issued on a folding board, about 18 inches square, bound in book muslin, embossed and stamped in gold. The inside being a handsome lithograph of a very attractive and entirely original design, within an artistic and appropriate border, accompanied by a neat and durable box, covered with book muslin, containing twenty embossed men, each piece enameled in two handsome colors. Price, $2.00.

CRISPINO.

An attractive and exciting game of chance and skill, for two, three, or four players."

* * * "Crispino," an excellent game of mingled skill and chance, simple enough to be played by a child, and yet sufficiently complex to interest the soberest of grown folks. We approve highly of these and all similar devices for making home the pleasantest of all possible places; and the inventor of a new one is a benefactor always."—Hearth and Home.

This very fascinating game combines in one many of the best points of other board-games, and having the advantage of being just difficult enough to require the exercise of a moderate degree of thought, is equally attractive to both old and young folks. Besides which, it has features of interest peculiar to no other board-game.

Issued on a folding board, 18 inches square, bound in fine cloth, gold-lettered, the ground lithographed in five brilliant colors; accompanied by a durable box covered with cloth, containing the implements: four dice and dice-cups, sixteen men—four kings and twelve pawns—handsomely embossed and enameled in four brilliant colors corresponding to the colors of the board, and complete directions and rules for the game. Price, $2.00.

"STELLA."

An entertaining and delightful game, for two, three, or four players.

This game has been in the market but a short time, and has become quite popular. It is lithographed in three colors and mounted on a board 18 inches square, bound in cloth, embossed and stamped in gold. With box of implements and complete rules and directions for playing two different ways. Price, $2.00.

A FUND OF AMUSEMENT FOR YOUNG AND OLD.

THE BEE-HIVE OF FUN.

THE BEE-HIVE OF FUN.

A highly amusing Game of Forfeits and Characters for Evening Parties and Social Gatherings.

* * "The Bee-hive of Fun" is by odds the best parlor game we have yet seen anywhere. Played by people who are not too dignified to laugh aloud, it will make a particularly pleasant evening, whatever the weather may be."—Hearth and Home.

"The Bee-hive of Fun" is a grand parlor game."—The Granger, San José, California.

"Messrs. CLAXTON, REMSEN & HAFELFINGER publish two new games entitled respectively 'Crispino' and 'The Bee-hive of Fun.' They are both of them ingenious and entertaining, and will be a welcome addition to the stock of presents for the young folks."—N. Y. Daily Graphic.

The game may be played by three, four, five, or a dozen players—"the more the merrier"—and has proved immensely popular wherever introduced. For downright fun there is nothing like it.

Issued on a folding board, 18 inches square, bound in fine cloth; the inside, representing the Bee-hive, is an elegant lithograph in brilliant colors, accompanied by a neat box, containing various properties of the game: A Fool's Cap; Card-board Spectacles; Old Lady's Cap; Labels to be worn on the head—"In Prison," "In Bed," "The Pump," Pair of Dice and Dice-Cup; all handsomely gotten up. Price, $2.00.

CHANCERY.

A new and exciting Game. This game is handsomely gotten up and mounted on a board of the same size and style as "Stella." With box of implements—sixteen counters—four of each of four colors—eight dice, four dice-cups, and complete rules and directions. Price, $2.00.

THE STATIONERS' ANNUAL.

We have the pleasure of informing the trade, that, encouraged by the expressions of approval and promises of support, we have decided to prepare a special ANNUAL for the Stationery and Fancy Goods Trade, with the purpose of making it as useful and indispensable a work of reference to the Stationer, as the Publishers' Annual has become to the Bookseller. The title thus far suggested will probably be

THE STATIONERS' ANNUAL PRICE CURRENT,

AND

BUSINESS GUIDE FOR 1874-75.

THE VOLUME IS TO CONTAIN:

1.—A general Guide to the Stationery Trade, which is to take the place of the long-promised STATIONERS' HANDBOOK—giving to beginners or dealers all the necessary information on the details and technicalities of the Stationery Trade, together with valuable miscellaneous hints and notes.

2.—A comprehensive Price Current of Staple Goods, arranged systematically for ready reference, and provided with a margin for price changes which, after the publication of the Annual, will be regularly reported in the PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY.

3.—Illustrated Catalogues, Trade Lists, Business Cards, etc., of Manufacturing Stationers and Importers, and Wholesale Dealers of Miscellaneous Goods (generally sold at the Book, Stationery and Fancy Goods Stores).

4.—Alphabetical and Classified Indexes that will enable dealers to turn readily to anything they wish to be informed upon.

The work will form a large 8vo, uniform with the Publishers' Annual, bound in cloth. Price of subscription, per copy, 50c., payable on notification of publication day (probably in September), after which the price will be raised.

☞ Suggestions and endorsements of this enterprise are respectfully solicited and will be thankfully appreciated.

LEE & SHEPARD'S SUCCESSFUL NOVELS, LATELY PUBLISHED.

By the Author of "The Dodge Club."

The Lily and the Cross.

A Tale of Acadia. By Prof. JAMES DE MILLE.

12mo, illustrated. $1.50.

"Prof. James De Mille's novel entitled 'The Lily and the Cross' will be eagerly sought for by the large circle of admirers which his earlier works have won for him. The experienced novel-reader may not find it so replete with exciting scenes and rollicking fun as some of his previous books, yet the plot is well developed, the story is full of incident, and there are no prosy interpolations of the author to interfere with its progress. The scene of the tale is laid in Nova Scotia—the ancient Acadia of the early French settlers—during the years of the French and English in the early part of the eighteenth century."—Inter-Ocean, Chicago.

Of one of his previous books, "Cord and Creese," the Philadelphia Press says: "It is such a striking work of fiction, that we are inclined to rank it only a little below Dumas's 'Monte Cristo.' The author, it may be safely predicted, is bound to win great celebrity as a novelist; for he not only draws and develops character, but his constructive power is also very great."

By the Author of "An American Girl Abroad."

KATHERINE EARLE.

A Novel. By ADELINE TRAFTON.

12mo, illustrated. $1.75.

"The volume which promises to have the greatest run this fall, and which really deserves such popularity, is 'Katherine Earle.'"—Portland Transcript.

"Not only thoroughly American, but also American from the standpoint of home life, Miss Trafton's highly interesting novel is a welcome contribution to our national literature."—Illustrated New Age, Philadelphia.

"Miss Trafton, in this bright, fresh fiction, has achieved a still more marked success than even her original and amusing book of travel, 'An American Girl Abroad,' brought to her."—The Spy, Worcester.

A Brilliant Society Novel.

NOT IN THEIR SET;

Or, Different Circles of Society.

By MARIE LENZEN. Translated from the German. 12mo. $1.50.

"The author has carefully studied character and life in German society. She is a keen and sympathetic observer. She is especially at home among fashionable and cultivated circles, and she analyzes, paints, interprets, and moralizes in a way creditable to her head and heart. She has given us here an entertaining volume."—Morning Star, Dover.

"Not a small part of the interest of this work arises from the unconscious touches of the author, developing a state of society so different from our own, showing much from which we might learn to profit with advantage, as well as not a little that we have outgrown and discarded."—The Gazette, Salem.

"THE OLD KENTUCKY HOME."

LORD OF HIMSELF.

A Novel. By FRANCIS H. UNDERWOOD. One Volume, 12mo, Cloth. $1.75.

"A well-written and thoroughly interesting novel."—Daily Graphic, N. Y.

"Adds to its attractiveness as a novel, the charm of elevated sentiment, expressed in elegant and forcible English."—Globe, Boston.

"A story of life in Kentucky some twenty or thirty years ago, and as a picture of the life of that epoch, this book possesses great merit. It is faithful, vivid, and spirited, without being overdone."—Tribune, N. Y.

"It may be said of 'Lord of Himself,' that it is a good story. After the reader has gone a few pages into it, he is curious to know what is to happen in the last chapter. It is also a full story. There is not a chapter in it which is not worth reading. . . . Mr. Underwood has entertained and instructed us. He has given us some admirable pictures of particular people, and a very lifelike representation of a society and a period."—N. Y. Evening Post.

By the Author of "Ina."

THE ITALIAN GIRL.

A Novel. By Mrs. KATHARINE SEDGWICK WASHBURN. 12mo. $1.50.

"Lovers of art and Italy will read with keen interest this fresh story."—Boston Traveller.

"A fascinating and well-written story."—Portland Argus.

"Lively, fresh, and vivid."—Providence Journal.

"It abounds in vigorous pictures of Italian life."—Boston Transcript.

"Intensely dramatic and exciting."—N. B. Mercury.

"The vivid colors in which characters are painted will attract."—Salem Gazette.
